Please join the Hawthorne Family Playschool (HFP) community at Oaks Park Dance Pavilion on Saturday February 7th from 5:00-7:00 p.m. for the 2009 Silent Auction and Dance Party.

Oaks Park Dance Pavilion is a unique Portland landmark. Located on the Willamette River in the heart of Oaks Park, the building's multi-paned windows and sepia toned historic photographs will transport you into the past.

HFP alumni parents Belinda Miller and Hova Najarian, DJs of Greasy Kids Stuff (on 94.7 FM every Saturday morning from 8-9 a.m.), will bring their fun and super cool music mix to host a kids' dance party. This adult friendly music is sure to get the whole family grooving, so wear your dancing shoes and get ready to boogie down!

Family friendly with something for everyone.... crafts, toys and games will please kids of every age and beer and wine for the over 21 crowd.

Dinner is on us. Healthy, home cooked food made by HFP parents. You'll be sure to find something to please the most finicky eater.

A raffle, Heads or Tails Giveaway and a silent auction will be held with more than 100 interesting items to be auctioned off. With a theme of supporting our local merchants, individual skills and handmade items, there will be something for everyone.
